DIGEST OF DECISIONS RELATING TO NATIONAL BANKS.

[The following Federal cases were reported in vols. 249-251, United States Reports, and vols. 259-266, Federal Reporter. One State case from Texas is also given.]

ACCOMMODATION PAPER.

Sales—Arrangement under which advances were made on notes held not “purchases,” but loans at usurious interest, and bank acting as intermediary an accommodation indorser.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) An arrangement under which a bank advanced to a payee of notes 77 per cent of their amounts, and turned them over to a credit company, which advanced the same amount to it, and was to pay the other 23 per cent out of payments on the notes after deducting a charge of 1 per cent per month, the bank making a charge not measured by the time elapsing between the date of its payments and the date of its reimbursement, was not a purchase of the notes by either party, but a loan on the notes at a usurious rate of interest, and the bank was a mere accommodation indorser of notes in which it never had any beneficial interest. (Sponge Exchange Bank of Tarpon Springs v. Commercial Credit Co., 263 Fed. Rep., 20.)

Sales—Transaction is not a “sale” where indorser is to account for collections in excess of advances with interest.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) When by the terms of a transaction by which an indorsee acquires a note he is required to pay or account to the indorser for so much of what is collected on it as exceeds the amount advanced and agreed interest thereon, the transaction is not a “sale.” (Ib.)

Appeal and error—Plea of payment need not be considered where uncontroverted evidence entitled defendant to verdict on another plea.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) On appeal in an action against a bank on notes, its plea of payment need not be considered, where the uncontroverted evidence sustained its plea that the indorsement of the notes was a mere lending of its credit to the notes. (Ib.)

Under statute bank could not loan its credit to note by accommodation indorsement.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) Under Gen. St., Fla., 1906, sec. 2707, a bank is not permitted to lend its credit to paper which it does not own, and in which it has no beneficial interest, by indorsing such paper. (Ib.)

Evidence—Parties dealing with bank were charged with knowledge of statute under which it could not make accommodation indorsement.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) Parties advancing money on notes taken through a bank, which acted as intermediary, were chargeable with notice of the law of the State, under which the bank could not bind itself by an accommodation indorsement of notes which it did not own, and in which it had no beneficial interest. (Ib.)

CHECKS AND DRAFTS.

LETTERS OF CREDIT.

Bank liable for refusal to honor letter of credit.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) Where defendant bank issued a letter of credit to plaintiff covering the price of merchandise to be shipped by plaintiff to a third party, it is no defense to an action for refusal to honor a draft made by plaintiff pursuant to the letter of credit, attached to the bills of lading, that owing to a recent Government regulation the purchaser could not export the merchandise as intended. (American Steel Company v. Irving National Bank, 266 Fed. Rep., 41.)

Can not revoke letter of credit acted upon.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) A bank issuing a letter of credit on behalf of a depositor to a third person, who acts on it, can not justify its refusal to honor its obligation because of contract relations between it and the depositor. (Ib.)

"Letter of credit"; "general letter of credit"; "special letter of credit"; definition of terms.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) A letter requesting one person to make advances to a third person on the credit of the writer is a "letter of credit"; it is general, if directed to the writer's correspondents generally, and special, if addressed to some particular person. (Ib.)

COLLATERAL SECURITIES.

RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF HOLDERS OF COLLATERAL.

Carriers—Possession of bill of lading presumptive evidence of ownership.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) The possession of a bill of lading, whether indorsed or not, is presumptive evidence of ownership of goods therein described as against any person not showing a better title. (National Bank of Ashtabula v. Bradley, 264 Fed. Rep., 700.)

Carriers—Acts of drawer of bill of lading after discount of drafts do not affect discounter.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Any act of the drawer of a bill of lading after delivery of the bill and discount of a draft attached, will not affect the rights of the person discounting the drafts. (Ib.)

Banks and banking—Carriers—Rule that bank should act only as agent in collecting drafts applicable only to parties.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Rule of bank, that in receiving drafts it shall act only as agent for the depositor, applies only between the bank and its customer, and does not constitute the bank, which discounted drafts attached to a bill of lading, a mere agent of the owner as against an attaching creditor. (Ib.)

Carriers—Bank which discounted drafts attached to bill of lading held owner of property.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Where a bank discounted drafts attached to a bill of lading, and gave credit to the depositor, who was already indebted, allowing the depositor to withdraw the excess, the bank became the owner of the property specified in the bill of lading, notwithstanding the depositor's attempts to induce the consignee, on whom the drafts were drawn, to dispose of the property, this being particularly true where the deposit slip giving credit contained no reservation. (Ib.)

Bills and notes—Bank discounting drafts with bill of lading attached, holder for value.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Under Gen. Code, Ohio, sec. 8193 et seq., bank, discounting drafts with bills of lading attached, even though the drawer has overdrawn his account, becomes a holder for valuable consideration. (Ib.)

Carriers—Sheriff's seizure of grain, where bank had discounted drafts, held conversion.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Where, after a bank had discounted drafts with bills of lading attached, the sheriff seized the grain shipped under a judgment against the consignor, his act amounted to a conversion as against the bank, and an action for damages for conversion may be maintained. (Ib.)

Carriers—Rights of bank discounting drafts not affected by payment of other indebtedness.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Where a bank discounted drafts with bills of lading attached, and gave the depositor credit, which he withdrew, the rights of the bank were not affected, because a relative of the depositor subsequently gave a note to secure other indebtedness due the bank, on which the depositor made payments, etc. (Ib.)

SALE OF COLLATERAL SECURITIES.

Pledges—Liability of pledgee for conversion.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) A bank, holding certain new automobiles in pledge as security for a loan, which, on bankruptcy of the debtor, nominally sold them for less than their value to a director, who resold them singly through an agent at a profit, which was turned over to the bank, held accountable to the trustee in bankruptcy for the difference between its debt and the amount actually received, with interest (Howard v. Mechanics Bank et al., 262 Fed. Rep., 699.)

Pledges—Lien of pledgee limited to proceeds of wrongful sale.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) A pledgee of property of bankrupts, which ostensibly sold it for the amount of its debt, but afterwards received from the purchaser the profit on resales, held to have waived any right to a lien for expenses incurred for storage before its sale. (Ib.)

Bankruptcy—Effect of wrongful sale by pledgee of bankrupt.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) A pledgee, which wrongfully sold the pledged property, held estopped to claim a lien for a greater amount than it received on an accounting to the trustee in bankruptcy of pledgors for the value of the property. (Ib.)

Bankruptcy—Right of bank to apply funds on unsecured indebtedness.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) A bank, which as pledgee wrongfully sold property of bankrupts at private sale for the amount of its lien, but afterwards received the profit from resales by the purchaser, which it held as its own, held estopped, on an accounting to the trustee, to apply such sum on unsecured indebtedness of bankrupts. (Ib.)

COLLECTIONS.

Collecting bank's liability as collector governed by general law, not State decisions.

(U. S. D. C., 1919.) On a question of general law, as the liability of a bank accepting for collection commercial paper, the Federal courts are not bound by decisions of the State in which the contract was made, or to be performed, but must determine the question of liability by reference to all authorities. (Taylor & Boumiqu Co. v. National Bank of Ashtabula, 262 Fed. Rep., 168.)

Liability of bank collecting commercial paper for acts of correspondent.

(U. S. D. C., 1919.) A bank receiving commercial paper in one State for collection in another is liable for any neglect of duty occurring in its collection, whether arising from the default of its own officers or employees, or from that of its correspondent, and while this obligation may be modified by contract, a modification will not be inferred from knowledge that the receiving bank must, or intends in due course of business to, forward the paper to another bank for collection. (Ib.)

Owner of commercial paper can not sue correspondent selected by bank to which paper was delivered for collection.

(U. S. D. C., 1919.) Where a correspondent selected by a bank with which was deposited commercial paper for collection is negligent, and the owner suffers a loss, the owner can not in his own name sue the negligent correspondent, but his right of action is against the bank with which he deposited the commercial paper. (Ib.)

DEPOSITS.

APPLICATION OF DEPOSIT ON CLAIM.

Bank entitled to apply deposit on demand note, but may waive such right.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Whether one indebted to a bank on a demand note was solvent or insolvent, the bank had a right to insist on a set-off of the debtor's deposit, and to retain the deposit and credit it on the note there being no agreement to the contrary; but it could waive this right, recognize the debtor's ownership of the deposit, and allow him to retain it, check it out, or apply it as a payment on the note. (In re Cross, 265 Fed. Rep., 769.)

Set-off and counterclaim—Right of set-off existed in equity, but not at law, independent of statute.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) The right of set-off in actions at law did not exist at common law, but was created by statute; but the equitable remedy of set-off existed at common law, independent of statute. (Ib.)

Set-off and counterclaim—Statutes respecting "counterclaims" held to include recoupment and set-off.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) The provisions of the New York Code of Civil Procedure on the subject of "counterclaims" include recoupment and set-off. (Ib.)

Bankruptcy—Bank held to lose lien on assigned accounts after collection and deposit of proceeds by assignor.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Where one indebted to a bank assigned accounts receivable to it, under an agreement that he might collect the accounts and deposit the proceeds in such bank, with the right to check against it as required in the conduct of the business, and that he would make daily assignments of all new accounts receivable in place of those so collected, when money collected was deposited in the debtors' name, subject to his check, and new accounts were substituted, the bank lost all lien and claim on such money by virtue of the agreement to assign as against other creditors and the debtor's trustee in bankruptcy. (Ib.)

Bankruptcy—Bank held to have received payment from bankrupt and not exercised right of set-off.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Where a bank, holding its depositor's demand note, on discovering that his financial condition was unsatisfactory, demanded a check for the amount of the deposit, and, on receiving it, canceled the note and took a new note for the amount due, less the deposit, the transaction held a payment to the bank, and a voidable preference, and not an exercise of the bank's right of set-off. (Ib.)

Bills and notes—Demand note held to have become due and payable by demand.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Where a bank, holding its depositor's demand note, demanded that he give it a check for the amount of his deposit, canceled the note, and took a new note for the amount of the old note, less the deposit, what was done operated as a demand, making the old note due and payable. (Ib.)

Bankruptcy—Bank entitled to enforce right of set-off, and right not affected by payment by check.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) If one indebted to a bank on a note makes deposits in the due course of business, without intent to give it an opportunity to secure a preference, and the note is due, the bank has a banker's lien on the deposit, and may enforce it by set-off, though it knows the depositor is insolvent and contemplates bankruptcy proceedings, and the set-off may be made before or after such proceedings are instituted, and the fact that it takes the form of a payment by check drawn against the deposit is immaterial. (Ib.)

Under agreement with debtor, bank not entitled to appropriate deposit to payment of debt due it.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Where one indebted to a bank on a demand note assigned accounts as security under an agreement that he might collect them, deposit the proceeds, and check against the deposit as required in the conduct of the business, and that he would make daily assignments of all new accounts in place of those so collected, the bank was bound by the agreement that the debtor might check against the deposit for the payment of debts and obligations incurred in the business, and it had no right as against such creditors to appropriate the deposits to the payment or extinguishment of its preexisting debt. (Ib.)

Right to set-off deposit against notes of decedent.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) A bank, which held notes of a decedent at the time of his death, by transferring his account to the name of his administratrix held to have waived the right to subsequently apply the account as a set-off on the notes. (In re Tietje, 263 Fed. Rep., 917.)

DEPOSIT OF PUBLIC MONEY.

Clerk of courts—Right of clerk of circuit court of appeals to canceled checks; "public money;" "money of the United States."

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) Fees and emoluments received by the clerk of the Circuit Court of Appeals are not "public money," nor "money of the United States," and when deposited in bank by the clerk and checked against to pay expenses of his office, the Treasury Department is without authority to order his canceled checks retained by the bank, but the clerk is entitled to have them returned in the customary manner, to be preserved by him. (Petition of clerk for instructions respecting canceled bank checks, 261 Fed. Rep., 154.)

SPECIAL DEPOSIT.

Dealings with depositors—Special deposit.

(U. S. S. C. A., 1919.) Where defendant bank knew that a special account opened by plaintiff was for the purpose of advancing money to meet the pay roll of a contractor who was constructing a building for plaintiff, and that the custom was for plaintiff, when a pay roll came due, to make a check on the account in favor of the contractor for the exact amount, which was used in meeting the pay roll, it can not be held as matter of law that the deposit made by such a check was not a special deposit, which defendant would not rightfully apply on a note of the contractors. (Owens Bottle Mach. Co. v. Kanawha Banking & Trust Co., 259 Fed. Rep., 838.)

"Special deposit" defined.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) A "special deposit" implies the custody of property without the authority in the custodian to use it, and the right of the owner to receive back the identical thing deposited. (Tuckerman v. Mearns et al., 262 Fed. Rep., 607.)

Brokers—Holding customer's stock not a special deposit.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) Stock purchased by a broker for a customer does not constitute a special deposit in the broker's hands, since the broker might discharge his obligation by delivering other stock of equal kind and denomination. (Ib.)

ACTIONS BY DEPOSITORS.

Allegation of general deposit not supported by proof of special deposit.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) An action by a trustee in bankruptcy against a bank to recover the balance of what was alleged to be a general deposit made by bankrupt, subject to its check, held not sustained by evidence that the deposit was special, and withdrawals therefrom were to be made only by checks countersigned by a third party. (Conklin v. Guaranty Trust Company of New York; in re Morton Truck and Tractor Company, 266 Fed. Rep., 361.)

Liability for negligent failure to discover forgery not relieved by depositor's negligence.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) A depositor's recovery against a bank for negligently failing to detect a forgery is not precluded by the depositor's failure to examine his bank statement and checks. (Farrell et al. v. First Nat. Bank of Philadelphia, 263 Fed. Rep., 778.)

Bank liable for payments contrary to power of attorney.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Where plaintiff depositor gave defendant bank a power of attorney authorizing an employee of the depositor to draw checks under a specified sum and settle the bank account, held, that the bank's liability for amounts checked out by the employee in excess of the specified amount was not affected by the depositor's failure to examine the monthly bank statements, since the power of attorney notified the bank that the employee would examine the statements. (Ib.)

Recovery by depositor not precluded by failure to examine accounts in other banks.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) A depositor's recovery against a bank for making payments contrary to the limitations of a power of attorney, held not precluded by the depositor's failure to examine indorsements upon checks and duplicate deposit slips in another bank, which might have led it to discover the unauthorized payments. (Ib.)

Depositor's negligence must directly affect bank to preclude recovery.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) In a depositor's action against a bank for wrongfully paying out funds, the depositor's negligence is immaterial, unless it directly and proximately affected the bank's performance of its duties. (Ib.)

Bank liable for unauthorized payments.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Where defendant bank permitted a defaulting employee of plaintiff depositor to check out funds contrary to the limitations specified in a power of attorney given the bank, the bank was liable for such payments, under the rule that, where one of two innocent parties must suffer for the tortious act of a third, the party giving the aggressor the means of doing the wrongful act must bear the consequences. (Ib.)

Payment—Bank entitled to only partial benefit from repayments made by defaulting employee of depositor.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) In action by a depositor against a bank, which had permitted a defaulting employee of the depositor to withdraw funds contrary to the limitations of a power of attorney, held, that the depositor might apply money repaid to it by the defaulting employee upon other losses caused it by the employee, and need apply only the remaining balance on the bank's debt to it. (Ib.)

Payment—Bank not entitled to credit for repayments made to depositor by defaulting employee.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) In a depositor's action against a bank for permitting a defaulting employee of the depositor to withdraw funds contrary to the limitations of a power of attorney, held, that the depositor might recover its entire actual loss from such withdrawals, without crediting the bank with certain sums which the employee repaid to the depositor, to make good other defalcations. (Ib.)

Bank not entitled to certain credits in action by depositor.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) In a depositor's action against a bank for permitting a defaulting employee of a depositor to withdraw money contrary to the terms of power of attorney, held, that the bank was not entitled to claim credit a second time for an item which plaintiff credited to it in its statement of claim, nor another sum which never reached plaintiff. (Ib.)

Pleading—Affidavit of defense must clearly state grounds.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) In a bank's action to recover an overdraft, the depositor's affidavit of defense that, being ignorant of the true state of his account, he was informed it was $1,036 and was given a certified check for that amount, and that his pass book is in plaintiff's possession, and that plaintiff's claim should be matter of strict proof, was insufficient under the seventy-third rule, which requires such affidavit, not only to interpose a strict denial, but to clearly state grounds of defense, which, if true, would defeat plaintiff's claim in whole or in part. (Prowsky v. Second Nat. Bank, 265 Fed. Rep., 1003.)

Bank can recover from drawer amount of overdraft in certified check.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) A bank can recover from the drawer of a check, whether certified or not, in indebitatus assumpsit for money paid to his use, if the check amounts to an overdraft. (Ib.)

Payment—Money paid under mistake of fact may be recovered.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) One who pays money to another under an honest mistake of fact may, in the absence of an equitable defense, recover the money so paid. (Ib.)

Bank is personally liable on certificate of deposit.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) A certificate of deposit executed by a bank is in legal effect a duebill and imports personal liability of the maker. (First National Bank of Rome, Ga., v. First National Bank of Jasper, Fla., 264 Fed. Rep., 83.)

FORGED OR ALTERED PAPER.

Duty of depositor to verify bank statement.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) A depositor, who sends his passbook to be written up and receives it back with his paid checks as vouchers, is under obligation to the bank to examine and verify the passbook and vouchers, and to report to the bank any errors disclosed. (Hammerschlag Mfg. Co. v. Importers and Traders National Bank of New York, 262 Fed. Rep., 266.)

No liability for payment of raised checks, where alterations not discoverable by reasonable care and depositor late in making claim.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) A bank expressly authorized in writing to pay checks to a depositor's bookkeeper, and which so paid checks duly signed by the depositor, but which, after signing, had been raised by the bookkeeper, held not liable for the overpayments, where the checks were entirely written by the bookkeeper, and the alterations were not discoverable by reasonable care, and where depositor's passbook was written up and returned with canceled checks each month, and no claim was made by depositor until more than a year after the raising of the checks commenced. (Ib.)

Trial—Direction of verdict proper where evidence is undisputed.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) A directed verdict is proper, where the evidence is undisputed and free from conflict. (Ib.)

Liability for payment of raised checks affected by laches of depositor in notifying.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) Where a depositor's passbook was written up and returned with canceled checks each month, with a notice stamped thereon requesting its examination, and stating that the bank disclaimed responsibility for any error unless notified within 30 days, the bank held not liable for payment of raised checks, which it could not have discovered by reasonable care, and of which it was not notified for nine months. Manton, circuit judge, dissenting. (Ib.)

INDEMNITY.

Indemnity—Contract to indemnify bank against loss from uncollectible assets covered forged or paid notes.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) A contract executed by directors and stockholders of a national bank, on a statement by the examiner that he regarded notes receivable shown on its books as of doubtful value and intended to report it insolvent, by which they bound themselves to indemnify the bank "against any loss whatever which said bank may hereafter sustain by reason of its inability to realize upon or collect in the full amount or value of the assets of said bank as shown by its books of account as of this date," held to cover notes so shown on the books, which were forged or which had been paid. (Keyes v. Anderson, 262 Fed. Rep., 748.)

Indemnity—Consideration for contract to indemnify bank.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) Contract by directors and stockholders of a national bank to indemnify it against loss from uncollectible assets, made to prevent closing of the bank by the Comptroller for insolvency, held based on sufficient consideration. (Ib.)

Indemnity—Delivery to Comptroller of contract to indemnify bank sufficient.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) Delivery to the Comptroller of a contract by directors and stockholders to indemnify a national bank against loss from uncollectible assets, made to prevent closing of the bank for insolvency, held sufficient. (Ib.)

INSOLVENCY AND RECEIVERS.

PROOF AND PAYMENT OF CLAIMS.

COMPUTING AMOUNT OF CLAIMS AGAINST BANK.

Secured creditor of insolvent bank held entitled to dividends on full claim, regardless of collections on collateral.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) One having a claim against an insolvent bank in the hands of a receiver, secured by collateral, could prove for, and receive dividends on, the full amount of the claim, regardless of sums received from the collateral after transfer of the assets to the receiver, provided he did not receive more than the full amount due, especially where the receiver agreed to pay the claimant the same dividends paid other creditors in consideration of a delay in selling the collateral. (Washington-Alaska Bank et al. v. Dexter Horton Nat. Bank of Seattle, Wash., 263 Fed. Rep., 304.)

Pledges—Interest as well as principal is secured.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) A pledge of stock to secure an interest-bearing debt secured the interest as well as the principal of the debt. (Ib.)

State law as to priorities does not apply to bank doing business in another State.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) Act, Nev., March 24, 1909 (St., 1909, c. 191), giving priority to the claims of depositors and holders of exchange against insolvent banks over all other claims, except taxes, does not apply to a bank incorporated under the laws of Nevada, but doing business in Alaska. (Ib.)

Corporations—Rule as to extraterritorial force of laws of State of incorporation stated.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) The laws of the State in which a corporation is organized, which becomes a part of its charter, follow the corporation when it engages in business in another State; but those laws which regulate corporations in their manner of doing business in the State do not follow it into another State. (Ib.)

Statute giving preference to claims of depositors held repealed.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) Act, Nev., March 24, 1909 (St., 1909, c. 191), giving claims of depositors and holders of exchange priority over other claims against insolvent banks, except taxes, was repealed by St., Nev., 1911, c. 150, regulating banking and other matters relating thereto, which gives no such preference. (Ib.)

Failure to obtain leave to sue receiver is cured by his appearance at Court's direction without objection.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) The failure to obtain leave of the court appointing a receiver for an insolvent bank to sue him to foreclose a lien on collateral security for a debt was cured, and the judgment was not void, where the court directed the receiver to appear and answer, and he did so without raising the defense that prior permission to bring the suit had not been given. Ross, circuit judge, dissenting. (Ib.)

INTEREST AND USURY.

What constitutes usury.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) Whether a transaction by a national bank is usurious, and the penalties therefor, must be ascertained from the National Banking Act. That act adopts the usury laws of the States only in so far as they severally fix the rate of interest. Under the National Banking Act, which expressly empowers national banks to discount commercial paper and permits them to "take, receive, reserve, and charge on any loan or discount made * * * interest at the rate allowed by the laws of the state * * * where the bank is located, and no more," such banks in discounting short-time notes in the ordinary course of business may retain an advance charge at the highest rate allowed for interest by the state law, even though such advance taking would be usurious under the state law in the cases to which it applies.

To discount, ex vi termini implies reservation of interest in advance. 21 Ga. App., 356, affirmed. (Evans, Receiver of the Citizens & Screven County Bank, v. National Bank of Savannah, 251 U. S., 108.)

Usury not defense or counterclaim in action by national bank.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) Where usurious interest has been taken by a national bank, the remedy given by Rev. St. § 5198 (Comp. St. § 9759), by an independent action to recover the usurious payments is exclusive, and the claim can not be set up by way of defense or counterclaim in an action by the bank. (Wysong & Miles Co. et al. v. Bank of North America, 262 Fed. Rep., 130.)

JURISDICTION.

Process—Constructive service against nonresident only good as to rights in res.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) Constructive service can only bring nonresidents within the jurisdiction of a court, where there is a res in the control of the court, and then only for the sole purpose of adjudicating his rights, if any, to the res. (First Nat. Bank of Rome, Ga., v. First Nat Bank of Jasper, Fla., 264 Fed. Rep., 83.)

Judgment—Proceeds of discounted note not a res, justifying a judgment against nonresident on constructive service.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) Where a buyer of stock discounted his note at a bank and paid the proceeds to the seller, who deposited them in the bank and received a certificate of deposit, and the proceeds of the note never became a special deposit, but were mingled indiscriminately with the bank's money, such proceeds did not constitute a res within the control of the court, conferring jurisdiction to render a decree on constructive service against the nonresident holder of the certificate of deposit. (Ib.)

Appearance—Appeal from order refusing to quash service not general appearance.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) In the absence of an authoritative decision by the state court the rule in Florida that an appeal from a final decree on the ground, among others, of insufficiency of the service is an appearance bringing the appellant rightfully into court, will not be extended to an appeal from an order refusing to quash the service, as the statute, as construed by the state court, authorizes such an appeal, and it is to be implied that some benefit may be derived from the appeal. (Ib.)

Judgment—Decree held to adjudge only rights in a supposed fund and not to bar action on certificate of deposit.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) Where a buyer of stock discounted his note at a bank and paid the proceeds to the seller, who deposited them in exchange for a certificate of deposit, a decree in a suit by the buyer against the seller, the bank, and a nonresident bank owning the certificate of deposit, held, in view of the decision of the state Supreme Court construing the bill, to adjudge only the rights of nonresidents in a supposed fund in the bank issuing the certificate and hence not to constitute a defense to an action on the certificate, even if the court had jurisdiction over the nonresident bank. (Ib.)

Courts—General Federal statute as to district of suit displaced by statutes relating to suits by national banks against Comptroller.

(U. S. Sup., 1920.) Under Judicial Code, 24, subd. 16 (Comp. St. 991), giving District Court jurisdiction of suits by national banking associations, established in the district for which the court is held, to enjoin the Comptroller of the Currency, as provided by the title of the Revised Statutes relating to national banks, and section 49 (Comp. St. 1031), requiring proceedings to enjoin the Comptroller under the provision of any law relating to such association to be had in the district where such association is located, section 51 (section 1033), as to the district in which suits may be brought, is displaced pro tanto, and process may be served on defendant wherever found. (First National Bank of Canton v. Williams, Comptroller of the Currency. 40 Supreme Court Reporter, 372; 254 U. S., 504.)

Courts—Suit by national bank against Comptroller properly brought in district where bank is located.

(U. S. Sup., 1920.) Under Judicial Code, 24, subd. 16 (Comp. St. 991), and sections 49 and 51 (sections 1031, 1033), a suit by a national bank to enjoin the Comptroller of the Currency from doing threatened unlawful, arbitrary, and oppressive acts under color of his office, is properly brought in the district in which the bank is located. (Ib.)

Courts—When cause of action arises under the laws of the United States stated.

(U. S. Sup., 1920.) A cause of action arises under the laws of the United States, so as to give jurisdiction, where an appropriate statement by plaintiff, unaided by any anticipation or avoidance of defenses, discloses that it really and substantially involves a dispute or controversy respecting the validity, construction, or effect of an act of Congress. (Ib.)

OFFICERS.

POWERS OF AND REPRESENTATIONS OF BANK BY OFFICERS.

Right of national bank to withdraw credit extended and rescind loan agreement for fraud on part of cashier of another bank and failure to furnish agreed collateral.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) A, the cashier of the M. National Bank and in control of its affairs, acting in the name of B, its president, by correspondence induced the H. National Bank to agree to lend B a sum of money to be secured by the joint note of A and B and certain collateral. A then bought certain shares from T, with a check on the M. Bank signed with B's name, and forwarded by mail to the H. Bank a forged note and collaterals in apparent compliance with the loan agreement, upon receipt of which the H. Bank credited B with the amount agreed on; but in the meantime the check to T had been paid by the M. Bank, and A, to meet it, had made a slip falsely purporting to show a deposit there by B of a check on the H. Bank for the amount of the proposed loan. Having at first credited B with the amount of the loan, the H. Bank, under instructions sent by A in the names of the M. Bank and of B, respectively, made bookkeeping entries transferring the credit to the M. Bank, and later, upon receiving notice from B to cancel A's authority to act for the M. Bank, made further entries withdrawing the credit from the M. Bank's account; and still later, upon learning that the M. Bank had failed, made additional entries to cancel the loan. B repudiated A's action and denied liability. Held, (1) That, as against the M. Bank, the H. Bank had the right to rescind and cancel the loan agreement for failure to comply with its conditions and for the fraud; (2) that the payment of the check to T and the making of the fraudulent deposit to meet it, having occurred before the H. Bank received the note and collateral or made any entry on its books, could not subject it to liability in favor of the M. Bank; (3) that the bookkeeping entries made by the H. Bank could not create such liability, in the absence of any consideration moving to it from the M. Bank, and in the absence of any ground for estoppel. (240 Fed. Rep., 111 reversed.) (Harriman National Bank, of New York, v. Seldomridge, Receiver of the Mercantile National Bank, of Pueblo, Colo., 249 U. S., 1.)

Bank not liable on indorsement by vice president of his note in bank's name.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) A bank held not liable on an indorsement by its vice president in its name of his individual note to it, delivered to another bank to take up a prior note made by him before his connection with the indorsing bank, and accepted on his false representation, unverified, that the bank had assumed liability for the prior note, under circumstances which should have put the receiving bank on inquiry. (Drovers & Mechanics National Bank of Baltimore, Md., v. First National Bank of Sutton, W. Va., et al., 260 Fed. Rep., 9.)

Purchase of assets of another bank does not render purchaser liable for debts of selling bank.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) A purchase by definite contract by one banking corporation of the assets of another and the assumption of debts specified in the contract does not constitute a merger or consolidation, and does not, in the absence of fraud, make the purchasing corporation liable for all the debts of the selling corporation. (Ib.)

Bank not bound by false representations by officer of merger with another bank.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) Merger of a banking corporation with another and assumption by it of the entire debts of the other is not in the usual course of business of such corporations, and a bank is not bound by the false statement of a vice president or other officer in charge of its current business that there has been such merger and assumption of liabilities. (Ib.)

President may submit claims against decedent estate in foreign jurisdiction.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) The president of a banking corporation held to have authority, as an incident of his office, to submit claims of the bank against the estate of a decedent to the appropriate court in a foreign jurisdiction, and to bind the bank by such action. (Old Dominion Trust Co. v. First National Bank of Oxford et al., 260 Fed. Rep., 22.)

Wrongful loans made by national bank cashier not binding on bank.

(Texas Civil Appeals, 1920.) The plaintiff delivered a large sum of money to the cashier of the defendant national bank under an agreement by which the cashier was to loan the money to others for the benefit of the plaintiff. The arrangement was kept from the knowledge of the other officers of the bank. The cashier delivered to the plaintiff worthless securities, purporting to represent loans made by him, and misappropriated the money. It was held that the bank was not liable to the plaintiff for the money, first, because the cashier in his dealings with the plaintiff was acting as an individual and not as an officer of the bank, and second, because it is not within the powers of a national bank to engage in making loans for others. (Holmes v. Uvalde National Bank, 222 S. W. Rep., 640.)

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS, CIVIL LIABILITY OF.

DEGREE OF CARE REQUIRED OF DIRECTORS.

The degree of care required of directors and officers—Directors serving gratuitously, and who were without knowledge of the cashier's negligence or the possibility of fraud, not liable—The President, who was habitually at the bank and in control of its affairs, held liable for losses which bank suffered through his negligence in failing to make examination.

(U. S. Sup., 1920.) The degree of care required of directors of a national bank depends upon the subject to which it is to be applied, and each case is to be determined in view of all the circumstances. Briggs v. Spalding, 141 U. S., 132.

The bookkeeper of a national bank during a series of years defrauded it of an amount aggregating more than its capital and more than the normal average amount of its deposits by a novel scheme involving exchanges of his personal checks on the bank for checks of an outsider on another bank, cashing of the checks outside, abstraction by the bookkeeper of his own checks when returned to his bank with clearing-house statements which were settled by the cashier, and falsification of the deposit ledger, kept by the bookkeeper, so as to conceal the transactions by false charges against deposits and false additions of the totals, diminishing the apparent liability to depositors. The fraud could have been discovered by the cashier if he had himself taken and examined checks as they came from the clearing house or had carefully examined the multitudinous figures of the deposit ledger or called in and compared with it the depositors' pass books, but he negligently overtrusted the bookkeeper, and made his statements to the directors accordingly. Semi-annual examinations by national-bank examiners revealed nothing wrong, and wrong was not suspected, the seeming shrinkage of deposits being attributed to innocent causes.

Held: (1) That directors, serving gratuitously, who were without knowledge of the cashier's negligence or of the possibility of such a fraud, and who had assurance from the president, as from the bank examiners' reports, were not negligent in accepting the cashiers' statements of liabilities, like his statements of assets, which always were correct, and were not bound to inspect the depositors' ledger or call in the pass books and compare them with it, although there was a by-law, nearly obsolete, calling for examinations by a committee semiannually.

(2) That the president, who, besides being a large depositor, was habitually at the bank, in control of its affairs, with immediate access to the depositors' ledger, and who had received certain warnings that the bookkeeper was living fast and dealing in stocks, was guilty of negligence in failing to make an examination.

One who accepts the presidency of a national bank accepts responsibility for any losses the bank may suffer through his fault.

Interest upon the amount of a decree for such damages may be awarded as a matter of discretion, not of right.

Interest allowed in this case, from the date of the decree in the district court until the date when the judgment creditor (receiver of the bank) interposed delay by appealing to this court.

250 Fed. Rep., 525, modified and affirmed. (Bates, Receiver of The National City Bank of Cambridge, Mass., v. Dresser, Administrator of Dresser; Dean, Executor of Gale et al. and Bunker et al., Administrators, etc., of Richardson, 251 U. S., 524.)

Director of national bank under common-law obligation to exercise ordinary care and prudence.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) In addition to the specific duties defined in the national banking law, a director of a national bank is under a common-law obligation, to depositors and shareholders as well as to borrowers, to exercise at least ordinary care and prudence in the supervision and administration of the bank's affairs.

While knowledge may be essential to render a director liable as for a breach of a duty specially imposed by the statute, this does not prevent application of the common-law rule in measuring violations of common-law duties. (Bowerman v. Hamner, as Receiver of the First National Bank of Salmon, 250 U. S., 504.)

Director who fails to attend meetings of board of directors liable for losses which proper attention to his duties might have avoided.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) A director of a national bank who willfully fails to attend the meetings of the board of directors and otherwise to inform himself of the condition of the bank and to supervise its affairs is guilty of a breach of his common-law obligation and liable for losses resulting from gross mismanagement by the executive officers which a proper attention to his duties might have avoided.

The fact that the director resides at a distance from the location of the bank does not excuse him from this responsibility. (Ib.)

Director of national bank is responsible as such in absence of evidence that he has resigned and refused to qualify when reelected.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) Under Revised Statutes, 5145, a director of a national bank remains responsible as such in the absence of evidence that he has resigned or refused to qualify when reelected. (Ib.)

Both statutory and common-law liability may be charged in same bill.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) Where a director of a national bank, charged in the same bill with both statutory and common-law liability, secured a dismissal of the bill on the plaintiff's proofs without introducing any evidence of his own, and the circuit court of appeals reversed the case and directed a decree against him on the ground that the common-law liability was established; held, that the defendant was not entitled to a new trial of that issue upon the ground that the case in the district court had been treated as involving only the statutory liability. 241 Fed. Rep., 737, affirmed. (Ib.)

LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS FOR ASSENTING TO EXCESSIVE LOAN.

A loan made to two persons, in form one-half to each, but in substance a single loan, violates the national-bank act if excessive.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) A loan made by a national bank to two persons jointly, or in form one-half to each, but in substance as a single loan, violates the National Bank Act if in excess of the limit set by Rev. Stats., sec. 5200; and, in a complaint filed by the bank to recover resulting damages from a director under sec. 5239, a designation of the borrowers as a firm is descriptive merely and not essential. (Corsicana National Bank of Corsicana v. Johnson, 251 U. S., 68.)

Evidence that it was single loan.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) There was substantial evidence in this case from which the jury might find that there was a single excessive loan to two persons, in making which defendant as a director of the plaintiff bank knowingly participated, rather than two loans, neither of them excessive, made to the borrowers severally. (Ib.)

Contingent liabilities incurred as surety not liabilities for money borrowed in sense of sec. 5200.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) Contingent liabilities incurred by one person avowedly and in fact as surety or as indorser for money borrowed by another are not "liabilities * * * for money borrowed" in the sense of Rev. Stats., sec. 5200. (Cochran v. United States, 157 U. S., 286; Rev. Stats., sec. 5211, distinguished. (Ib.)

Suretyship may be proved when surety signs as joint maker.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) And where the surety signs ostensibly as joint maker, a director who knew and relied upon his suretyship is entitled to prove it when sued under sec. 5239 for participating in the making of an alleged excessive loan. (Ib.)

Director's liability for making excess loans.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) A director's liability for knowingly participating in the making of a loan in excess of the limit prescribed by Rev. Stats., sec. 5200, is not affected by the supposed standing of the borrowers, the propriety of his motive, the continued prosperity of the bank, its failure to sue other officers or directors, or to sue him until after a change in the stockholding interest or control, or by the fact that incoming stockholders purchased their shares with knowledge of the loan and of his alleged liability and may profit by a recovery against him. (Ib.)

Action against director for making excess loan—Limitation.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) An action in Texas by a national bank against a former director, under Rev. Stats., sec. 5239, for damages resulting from an excessive loan, is not barred in two years but in four. Vernon's Sayles' Civ. Stats., 1914, Arts. 5687, 5690. (Ib.)

Director's liability direct; not contingent or collateral.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) The liability imposed upon the director under Rev. Stats., sec. 5239, is direct, not contingent or collateral; the cause of action and the damages are complete when the money is loaned; and while the damages may be diminished by what the bank collects from the borrowers, it is not obliged to proceed primarily against them. (Ib.)

Extent of directors' liability for making excess loan.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) The excessive loan being unlawful in toto, the bank's damage in such cases is not measured by the part in excess of what might have been lent lawfully, but by the whole amount plus interest and less salvage. (Ib.)

Transfer of excess loan to loan company—Rescission by loan company—Re-transfer to bank not voluntary acceptance on part of bank.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) When a director and vice-president of a national bank makes an excessive loan and afterwards, knowing the borrowers to have become insolvent, joins in causing their paper to be transferred for full consideration but "without recourse" from the bank to a loan corporation, closely affiliated with the bank and having identical officers, directors, and shareholders, with ratable distribution of shares, the transaction, not having been ratified or acquiesced in by the shareholders, is subject to rescission by the loan company through resolution of a majority in interest at a regular shareholders' meeting, followed by appropriate action of its directors and officers; and an acquiescence in such rescission upon the part of the bank, through its shareholders, directors, and officers, is not to be regarded as a voluntary reacceptance of the paper in such a sense that the damages resulting from nonpayment of the loan must be treated, in an action against the director under Rev. Stats., sec. 5239, as flowing from such voluntary action and not from the unlawful loan itself. (Ib.)

Shareholders of loan company have right to rescind the transfer.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) In such a case, although the two corporations are distinct in so far that a loss on the paper to the loan company would not be the same in law as a loss to the bank, the shareholders nevertheless have a right to consider the practical effect of the transfer upon their common interest and to be guided by that interest in determining whether and upon what terms to rescind the transfer. (Ib.)

Rescission leaves director liable for damages in full.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) Since the transfer would operate only provisionally to satisfy the damages to the bank from the excessive loan, the rescission leaves the director liable for the damages in full; nor is it open to him to object that the rescission was brought about for the purpose of holding him so liable, through changes in the boards of directors involving the introduction of figureheads or "dummies," nor to criticise the terms of the retransfer agreed to by the two corporations. Decision of circuit court of appeals reversed. (Ib.)

ACTIONS TO ENFORCE LIABILITY.

RECEIVER'S SUIT AGAINST DIRECTORS.

Bill by receiver to charge directors of national bank held insufficient.

(U. S. D. C., 1918.) A bill by the receiver of a national bank against persons who were directors at different times, charging liability with respect to many transactions, set out, covering several years, held too general, in the indiscriminate charging of various kinds of wrongdoing as applicable equally to all defendants. (Curtis v. Metcalf et al., 265 Fed. Rep., 293.)

Requirements stated of bill by receiver to charge national bank directors for losses from excessive loans.

(U. S. D. C., 1918.) In a bill by a receiver against directors of a national bank to recover losses alleged to have been caused by loans to a single person in excess of the 10 per cent limit imposed by Rev. St., sec. 5200, as amended (Comp. St., sec. 9761), it is material that it be shown whether the indebtedness was created by direct borrowing, or by discount of commercial paper on which the debtor was liable only as indorser, and also that the statute was knowingly violated, to create liability under Rev. St., sec. 5239 (Comp. St., sec. 9831). (Ib.)

Charges must not extend beyond intended proof.

(U. S. D. C., 1918.) No mode of pleading is just to a defendant which charges him with more than is intended to be proved against him. (Ib.)

Requisites stated of bill to charge national bank directors for failure to collect debts.

(U. S. D. C., 1918.) A bill to charge a director of a national bank with losses from failure to collect debts due the bank should allege possession by the particular debtor of assets from which collection could have been made at the time of the alleged negligence. (Ib.)

Bill to charge directors of national bank should state nature of liability.

(U. S. D. C., 1918.) In a suit by the receiver of a national bank against a number of defendants, who were directors at different times, to recover losses alleged to have resulted from making loans in excess of the statutory limit, and also from negligence in making improvident loans and renewals and failing to collect, each defendant is entitled to be informed as to the extent of the charge of liability against him with respect to each transaction set out and whether the liability claimed is under the statute or at common law. (Ib.)

Bill to charge directors of national bank for excessive loans should show extent of liability.

(U. S. D. C., 1918.) A bill to charge a director of a national bank, under Rev. St., sec. 5239 (Comp. St., sec. 9831), with liability for losses upon loans exceeding the limit fixed by Rev. St., sec. 5200 (Comp. St., sec. 9761), should show clearly whether defendant is charged with liability for the whole loan, or only for the excess. (Ib.)

In suit against bank directors, not necessary to join all directors.

(U. S. D. C., 1918.) In a suit by the receiver of a national bank against former directors to charge them with personal liability for alleged illegal acts, it is not necessary that all persons who were directors during the time should be joined as defendants. (Ib.)

Appeal and error.—Suit against bank directors for losses several for purpose of appeal.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) A suit in equity by the receiver of a national bank against former directors to charge them with personal liability for losses is several as to each defendant, and a decree in favor of any defendant is final as to him, and appealable. (Curtis v. Conly et al., 264 Fed. Rep., 650.)

Limitation of actions.—Suit against directors barred by laches of bank.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) A suit by the receiver against former directors of a national bank, to charge them with liability for losses due to their misfeasance or nonfeasance, held barred, either by limitation, under Gen. Laws, R. I., c. 284, sec. 7, or by laches, where the bank was solvent when defendants retired from office, and succeeding directors, with knowledge of all the facts and without collusion with defendants, failed to bring suit within the time limited by statute. (Ib.)

Corporations—Directors not insurers of fidelity of successors.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) Directors are not insurers of the fidelity of their successors, who come upon the board unembarrassed by participation in any previous questionable transactions. (Ib.)

SURVIVAL OF ACTIONS.

Equity—Limitations affecting suit.

(U. S. D. C., 1919.) Where it was sought by bill in equity to charge defendants, who had been officers of a national bank which became insolvent, upon legal, instead of upon equitable, grounds of liability for mismanagement, defendants are entitled to the benefit of legal limitation statutes. (Curtis v. Metcalf et al., 259 Fed. Rep., 961.)

Limitation of actions—Fraud—Discovery.

(U. S. D. C., 1919.) While it is true that committing a fraud in a manner that conceals itself precludes the defense of limitations, yet there must be reasonable diligence on part of one seeking to avoid the running of the statute, and means of knowledge are in effect the same thing as knowledge itself. (Ib.)

National banks—Directors—Liability.

(U. S. D. C., 1919.) As statements of value are to a considerable extent statements of opinion, the burden is on a receiver of a national bank, seeking to hold directors liable on account of excessive valuations, etc., to show that the excessive valuations were due not to mistake in judgment, but were intentional, and made fraudulently, with knowledge of their falsity, or recklessly, and without knowledge. (Ib.)

Prohibited investments.

(U. S. D. C., 1919.) Stocks and bonds, in which a national bank is precluded from investing its funds, may properly be taken as security for a loan. (Ib.)

Directors—Authority of minority directors.

(U. S. D. C., 1919.) Minority directors of a national bank may protect the institution from illegal acts of the majority directors by stockholders' bill, directors having the same rights under equity rule 27 (198 Fed. xxv, 115 C. C. A. xxv) as other stockholders. (Ib.)

Limitation of actions—National banks—Actions against directors.

(U. S. D. C., 1919.) In action against the directors of a Rhode Island national bank, who were charged with responsibility for mismanagement, the only statute of limitations applicable is that of Gen. Laws R. I. 1909, c. 284, §§ 3, 7, imposing a six-year period of limitation, but declaring that a cause of action, fraudulently concealed, shall not be deemed to accrue until the party entitled to sue shall first discover its existence. (Ib.)

Limitation of actions—National bank directors—Bill.

(U. S. D. C., 1919.) A bill by the receiver of a Rhode Island national bank, charging directors with responsibility for mismanagement, held, as to those who had ceased to be directors more than 6 years and 6 months before the filing of the bill, not to state a cause of action, the allegations as to fraud and concealment not showing that the cause of action could not by reasonable diligence have been earlier discovered, and so Gen. Laws R. I. 1909, c. 284, § 3, imposing a six-year limitation, is a bar. (Ib.)

National banks—Actions by receiver.

(U. S. D. C., 1919.) A receiver of a national bank may join in one bill, charging directors with responsibility for mismanagement, charges of statutory negligence and common-law negligence. (Ib.)

OFFICERS, CRIMINAL LIABILITY OF.

EMBEZZLEMENT.

Liberty bonds in Federal reserve bank for exchange are "funds of bank," as affecting embezzlement.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Liberty bonds delivered by the United States to a Federal reserve bank for exchange with holders of a prior issue, held to constitute "funds of the bank," within the meaning of Rev. St., sec.

5209, as amended and extended to Federal reserve banks by act Sept. 26, 1918, sec. 7 (Comp. St., Ann. Supp., 1919, sec. 9772), as between the bank and employees charged with conspiracy to embezzle such bonds. (United States v. Jenks et al., 264 Fed. Rep., 697.)

Intention to replace funds not a defense to embezzlement charge.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) It is not a defense to a charge of embezzlement of bonds from a Federal reserve bank that defendants intended to use the proceeds to purchase other bonds of equal value to the bank to replace those taken. (Ib.)

Conspiracy—Deposits and checks held admissible to show division of proceeds of embezzlement.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) On trial of two defendants, charged with conspiracy to embezzle bonds from a bank, evidence showing deposits by one defendant in another bank of checks of the brokerage firm which sold the bonds, and payment of checks drawn by the depositor to his codefendant, aggregating one-half the amount of such deposits, held competent to establish division of the proceeds of the embezzlement and as evidence of the conspiracy. (Ib.)

WILLFUL MISAPPLICATION OF FUNDS.

Intent of "misapplication of money, funds, and credits" by officer for jury.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) The issuing by an officer of a national bank, without consideration, of certificates of deposit which are afterward paid by the bank, constitutes a "misapplication of its moneys, funds, and credits," within Rev. St., § 5209 (Comp. St., § 9772), and in a prosecution based thereon the intent with which the act was done is a question for the jury. (Matters v. United States, 261 Fed. Rep., 826.)

Making loss good no defense to criminal transactions with national bank.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) The criminal character of transactions with a national bank is to be determined from the facts and circumstances existing at the time, and it is no defense to a prosecution based thereon that a loss resulting to the bank was subsequently made good. (Ib.)

TRIAL AND ITS INCIDENTS.

Criminal law—Consolidation of indictments—Validity.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) The Consolidation Statute is not invalid upon ground that federal Constitution requires each indictment to be passed upon by a separate jury. (Showalter v. United States et al., 260 Fed. Rep., 719.)

Criminal law—Argument to jury—Conclusion from Evidence.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) A conviction for misapplying national-bank funds will not be reversed because the district attorney argued to the jury that defendant had caused the bank to lose money. (Ib.)

Criminal law—Instructions.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) A conviction will not be set aside for failure to give requested instructions where the charge actually given fully stated the law. (Ib.)

Criminal law—Requested instructions—Misleading character.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) In a prosecution for misapplying national-bank funds, a requested instruction which was calculated to mislead the jury by reciting only a part of the relevant testimony, held properly refused. (Ib.)

Misapplying national-bank funds—Instruction.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) In a prosecution for misapplying national-bank funds, a portion of the charge illustrating the difference between a misapplication and an embezzlement, held not open to the objection that it authorized a conviction without proof of intent to injure and defraud the bank. (Ib.)

Misapplying bank funds—Sufficiency of evidence.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) Evidence that defendant bank official, being unable to pay his own note, paid it from the bank's funds, and substituted the note for the cash, etc., held to sustain a conviction for misapplying national-bank funds. Pritchard, circuit judge, dissenting on rehearing. (Ib.)

ORGANIZATION.

Use of words trust company as part of title of national bank—Rights lawfully conferred on national bank can not be impaired by State.

(U. S. D. C., 1920.) Where a national bank has been authorized by the Federal Reserve Board, under the power conferred by Act December 23, 1913, sec. 11, subd. (k), as amended by Act September 26, 1918, sec. 2 (Comp. St. Ann. Supp., 1919, sec. 9794), and not in contravention of the laws of the State, to act as trustee and in other fiduciary capacities, and its name as a bank and trust company has been approved by the Comptroller, its right to use the name and to exercise such functions can not be impaired by any action of the State or its officers. (Fidelity Nat. Bank & Trust Co., of Kansas City, v. Enright, State Bank Com'r., 264 Fed. Rep., 236.)

POWERS.

IN GENERAL.

Incidental powers of national banks authorize contract of indemnity.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1920.) National banks, which were unsecured creditors of a bankrupt corporation, having practically no assets except an uncompleted Government contract, held, under Rev. St., 5136 (Comp. St., 9661 (7)), giving such banks "all such incidental powers as shall be necessary to carry on the business of banking," to have power to join in execution of a bond to indemnify a surety company against loss by reason of its suretyship for bankrupt on its contract, to enable the trustees in bankruptcy to proceed with and complete the contract work. (Second National Bank of Parkersburg, W. Va., et al. v. U. S. Fidelity and Guaranty Co., 266 Fed. Rep., 489.)

PRINCIPAL AND AGENT.

Principal and agent—Bank ratifying act of agent affected by his fraud in transaction.

(U. S. C. C. A., 1919.) A bank, which took as collateral to a note a contract by which a sum was to be paid the debtor in 30 days, and appointed the debtor its agent to collect, and afterward accepted in place of the contract notes of a corporation formed under a substituted contract made by the debtor, held to have ratified the acts of its agent in making the substitution, and to be affected by his fraud in the transaction, which invalidated the notes as between the parties. (Goodspeed v. Law, 260 Fed. Rep., 497.)

SHAREHOLDERS.

Principal and agent—Where husband without his wife's knowledge or consent, causes shares of a national bank to be entered on the books in her name, wife not liable for assessment.

(U. S. Sup., 1919.) A husband, without his wife's knowledge or consent, caused shares of a national bank to be issued and entered on its books in her name, and afterwards, telling her that it was a mistake, induced her to indorse them for transfer, in blank, to correct the supposed error, and with no intention to ratify, affirm, or acquiesce in his unauthorized act. Held, that the facts could be shown, and that the wife was not liable to assessment although the shares remained in her name on the books when the bank failed.

Approval, ratification, and acquiescence all presuppose the existence of some actual knowledge of the prior action and what amounts to a purpose to abide by it. (244 Fed. Rep., 346, affirmed.) (Williams, Receiver of The First National Bank, Bayonne, N. J., v. Vreeland, 250, U. S., 295.)

NOTE.—Specie payments were suspended from Jan. 1, 1862, to Jan. 1, 1879. During the greater part of that period gold and silver coins were not in circulation except on the Pacific coast, where it is estimated the specie circulation was generally about $25,000,000. This estimated amount is the only coin included in the above statement from 1862 to 1875, inclusive.

NOTE 2.—The Director of the Mint recently made a revised estimate of the stock of gold coin, and as a consequence of such revision the estimated stock of gold in the United States and of gold coin in circulation has been reduced $135,000,000 in the figures for 1907.

NOTE 3.—There was a reduction as of June 30, 1910, of $9,700,000 of subsidiary silver coin as a result of the revision of stock by the Mint Bureau.

¹ This amount represents the net amount due from banks as shown by the reports of those banks whose balances due from banks exceed the balances due to banks, and must be deducted from the amount in the second column in order to prove the apparent amount of liabilities upon which reserve is required. Certified checks and cashiers' checks are now included with amount due to banks in the reserve calculation.

[Chartered by Congress in 1816, for 20 years; renewal of charter denied; in consequence, reorganization was effected by means of authority of the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania. The bank assigned in 1841, the affairs being finally liquidated in 1856, and resulted in the payment in full, interest and principal, of liabilities to depositors and noteholders; the shareholders, however, received nothing on their investment in stock of the bank.]

TABLE 105.—NUMBER OF FAILURES, TOGETHER WITH NUMBER OF NATIONAL AND ALL OTHER REPORTING BANKS, INCLUDING TRUST COMPANIES, BY STATES.

[27-year period from Aug. 31, 1893, to June 30, 1920.]

Number of failures, 1893 to 1918, of all banks other than national, as shown in comptroller's reports from year to year, is from reports to Bradstreets, the number for 1919 being from reports to R. G. Dun & Co. and those for 1920 from national bank examiners. Number of banks, other than national, reported is as shown by annual reports of the Comptroller of the Currency. In many cases the number is unofficial and incomplete.
